

x Use your work breaks to give your children some attention

Working From Home with Kids

1) Create a Schedule for You and Your Kids

- x Allow your kids to have some say on the day's schedule write it down, let them colour it in, post it somewhere visible
- x Plan a balance of engaging activities and

2) Plan for Interruptions

- x Create signs for when you need quiet or uninterrupted time (e .g. tie a red ribbon on your door handle, or tape a stop sign on your door)
- x Keep the mute button on during conference calls
- x Work in bursts set a timer to let the kids know that you can't be interrupted until the timer goes off. When the timer goes off, reward them with your attention.

3) Manage Expectations

- x Be patient wit h yourself and those around you everyone is going through a significant change.
- x Let your leader and colleagues know what your situation i s

4) Take Care of Yourself

x Commit to your own rest, exercise and nutrition - recognizing it is hard to do some days

Resources

Health and Wellness

Go Noodle - indoor movement and mindfulness videos

P.E. with Joe – 30 minute physical education for kids streamed on YouTube

20 Easy to Prepare Snacks – have the kids help you during snack time or create a snack basket so kids can help themselves without having to ask for your help

12 easy and fun mental health practices to try with your children at home

Educational

Explore the resources from your child's school. Here are some additions:

Khan Academy – free courses, any subject, all grade levels, daily schedule templates for students ages 2-18 Things To Do - games, quizzes, discussion guides, videos, activities curated by Scholastic.ca Educational YouTube channels for kids

Online field trips – kids can take field trips around the world and explore "virtually"

"30 day Lego challenge" – each day they are challenged to use their imagination to create different objects Disneynature – documentaries and movies are available with activity packets to download (Grades 2-6) 40+ Best Indoor Activities for a Busy Toddler

Storyline Online – popular children's books read by celebrities

References

Parents.com – How to Master Being a Work at Home Mom Parents.com – Staying Busy and Sane with Your Kids While Schools Closed for Coronavirus CNN.com – Working from Home with Kids CTVnews.com – Tips for Parents Working from Home Forbes – Working from Home with Kids – 5 Action Steps for Leaders, Managers and Employees