

Preliminary Year and Preliminary Year Plus at Brescia University College

PRELIMINARY YEAR AND PRELIMINARY YEAR PLUS

Brescia University College offers a co-educational Preliminary Year program

Students who have partial admission credentials required for admission by Western and/or an Affiliate or who have completed previous post-secondary work that does not constitute a basis of admission to first year university may be considered for Brescia's Preliminary Year Plus program. Preliminary Year Plus consists of a minimum of 2.0 credit courses numbered 0001-0099 depending on the assessment of prior studies and the first year faculty/program in which the student expresses an interest.

Successful completion of Preliminary Year or Preliminary Year Plus programs requires a pass standing in all credit and non-credit courses required as specified at time of admission. Applicants who successfully complete the Preliminary Year or Preliminary Year Plus program may be considered for admission to a
