TERMS OF REFERENCE

SRBA is the final body to which students may appeal rulings of Deans in such matters as Senate shall determine from time to time. The decisions of SRBA in substantive matters are final.

Specifically, SRBA can:

Hear student appeals against those prior rulings by Deans that Senate has determined to be within SRBA's jurisdiction.

At its discretion, make recommendations to appellants and/or Deans on matters related to the appeal.

On behalf of Senate, offer such relief as is appropriate including:

- x waiver of a Senate regulation or requirement
- x directing the adjustment of grades in the case of an appeal against general
